African Pentecostalism Has Given Birth To A New Breed Of Mentally Lazy Christians Who See God As A Rewarder Of Mediocrity

Africa is currently experiencing another form of slavery through Pentecostalism.

We are now mentally lazy and our ability to reason scientifically has been incapacitated.

The African pastor won't talk about Usain Bolt or Serena Williams. The African Pastor won't talk about Steve Jobs or the young people in Silicon Valley reshaping our world.

They won't talk about young American scientists spending endless hours in search of a cure to a disease that's predominantly in the Tropical African Region.

The African pastor won't talk about Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie or Ben Okri. In every corner of the world, there exist young men and women who have defied all odds and become successful through hard work, creativity, and dedication....

The African pastor won't talk about them, neither will he ask his members to emulate the spirit of these individuals.

He would rather talk about sister Agatha who got a job she WAS NOT THE MOST QUALIFIED FOR because she prayed and fasted in line with their church programme or brother John a millionaire because he used all his salary as a seed in the church, or Papa Miracle who he laid his hands on and 3 of his children got admission in the university, or Mama Esther paid her tithe and her business started growing everywhere across the nation with no business plan, just boom, everywhere.

This has led to a new breed of mentally lazy young people who now see God as a rewarder of mediocrity.

To the African pastor, the only way to prosper is by paying your tithe and ' seeds in the church. So they will never talk about those, who have through hard work and dedication placed themselves on the world map.

No.....the African God only blesses the first 30 people that rush to the altars to drop $100 as seed.

The African God abhors hard work and creative thinking, he only gives to those who sow seeds and offerings.....and those who shout: "I am a millionaire" every morning and do nothing the rest of the day.

You want the Almighty to come down and help you use the talent He gave you and bless you because you are going to church to shout: "Daddy I receive it", these are all jokers.

Can someone tell these jokers that irrespective of your creed, faith or religion, blessings, and favors follow you once you start using your talent and become useful to your society?

The Bible tells the story of the Talents.

Use it. A blessing is already bestowed upon us. When we use it positively, we ask the Lord to bless it. The Bible says His Grace is sufficient for us.

The Western world and Asians are excelling and dominating the world.

Let no Imam or Pastor manipulate our minds while they themselves drown in amassing wealth and luxurious splendor, while our people are living in abject poverty.

Be Wise. Worship of God is from the heart. But study, work hard and always watch & pray! May God Almighty bless us all, in Jesus' name!!"

Good Day

Apostle Nii Kpakpo | 4/3/2017 8:28:00 AM

I am very sorry to say that you making mockery of your pen and paper for the sake of people like you to join you and say you see the wisest , but I tell I some of the times see the heading of your articles and they put me off, because u seem to part of a group of people I will liken the hen and cock to, who after eating brushing their peaks on the ground as if they have not eating.

You try to create a scenario where African Christians seems like been fls to be a part of a faith that gets to a people of different traditions and some of their traditions which has held them bound to fetishism for all their lives absurd and st*p*d (to say), and are set free from such fetish priests who gain sheep and goats and money by visiting their shrines.

First of all the bible was brought to Africa not to enslave as you and your ignorant dogmatic followers try to lead people little kinds like to you to understand.

The Church dies not teach people not to work neither not to look for jobs after prayer . If the jobs were there and people who are Christians hang around churches to pray for manner from heaven then you could have s point. But the truth is that corrupt people like you are in authority and are not making any effort to creat jobs for their people to find jobs to do . If you know how to condemn first condemn the people who are in authority and are busy bodies waist state funds . Think about it is it better to pray and go out and sit among thieves and thobs or is it better to keep yourself from such company and keep believing God for a job opportunity by continuing prayer . And mind you I condemn False prophets and men of God who use their gifts at extract monies from people. In any case it is once choice to give what he heart says to him in faith.

Secondly you always try to potray the Afican Christian as been used by the white mans introduction of the bible to us. What you don't us that all things you using today in your life was created the same white man , some of people like you gave left Africa to oh and settle in the white mans land using all they have created and you still insult them , critise objectively and give credit where it is due. On one is been enslaved , we only need to be in the right places and benefit under right people the fruits of the Bible which the white msn himself got from somewhere translated it into English and brought it to us. Bible does not belong to the white , the white man did not write the bible they only translated into their language.

To your information most of the laws in Europe are in the Bible that's why their continent is booming and with people lke lyou professing Christ but are hypocrites wolfs in sheep clothing with faith in backward traditions just because it's African.

I guess you have a point Apostle however this issue of impoverishing the minds of Africans with witchcraft and Satanism to make people leave in fear and pay Allengience to self styled prophets and pastors who extort money through the vulnerable and the week in faith is alarming. Not to defend any leader of Africa, besides, it's absurd that they also don't know their roles and responsibility and they keep on also impoverishing the minds of the ordinary electorate. We must know that leaders don't create jobs, they create policies systems and in short an enabling environment for thinkers to initiate plans, visions firstly in solving life treatenin issues and above all inventions n manufacturing of products that's makes the future of the society conducive. Unfortunately both Christians and political leaders have missed the mark n instead of the blame game we all need to go back to the drawing table. The knowledge of God Is set to transform lives. A transformed life begins with a renewal of the mind in better words the heart where all either good or bad emmanetes from. The knowledge and our love for God Is the key. No abuse for Soever. SHALOM Apostle, I greet you in the name of Almighty God. The one who was, who is, and who shall forever be.

I am glad I have had the chance to read your concerns and views. You have a good point but I am sorry to tell you that, you have missed the writer's point. You are arguing in your own perspective of understanding without understanding what he said. You are attacking the writer instead of what he wrote. I don't think the Bible teaches that...

Are you aware that anytime the current "supposed men of God" always find a way to connect wealth with sowing seed in church?" Are you even aware the parable of the sower was not basically talking about giving in church? Tell me who sows physically and earns spiritually. Money cannot make up for spiritual gifts and if Christ talked about sowing, he never was talking about sowing in church. After all, why will he ask them to go sow in church when he was running a Kingdom Ministry? Do you think he collected money from the people because he was leading them? If so, he would have had money to pay the tax instead of getting money from the mouth of a fish.

I don't beguile you because you are a man of God. You have your points well noted but tell me how many successful young guys and ladies and families do you see around our churches today? It is not that they don't pray of believe in God; it is just that they are getting the messages wrong.

I know what I am talking about because I know who I am. The gentleman was not saying the young ones and church goers should not worship God. He wants to challenge them to move beyond their comfort zone. Because after all, if they don't work to make money, how do you expect them to pay their tithe and/or offertories?

I rest my case here...we are all under the Grace of Elohim.
Shalom...

You have summarized everything eloquently. Its such a pity seeing able bodied men and women languishing in mental mediocrity. God blesses and help those who help themselves. Church is just a fellowship. Now its gradually turning into a quick money making scheme.

No mame | 4/6/2017 4:46:00 AM

You are right my dear. He is the apostle and he is offended because he is simply one of them misleading the young ones. No offence apostle, the writer is very right.

Tonny Okello | 4/7/2017 3:30:00 AM

Brilliant, the apostle is attacking the messenger while ignoring the message!

Johnny Q. | 4/9/2017 12:39:00 AM

If that is what the writer meant, then that is what the writer should have said.

Ezra | 4/10/2018 6:58:00 AM

What is failing the Pentecostalism in Africa is extremism or fanaticism. Worshiping God is man's obligation as well as work. The Word of God is very clear on the issues of work and worship. Man shall worship God and work, that is the truth and we cannot change it. The problem comes in when we fail to strike a balance between the time of work and time to worship.

The greatest resource that Africa has greatly violated is TIME resource. Eccl. 3 tells us that there is time for everything...we Pentecostals should understand that, actually, there are many principles in the Bible that we violate...the world uses those principles and they work for them, while the church, on the other hand, is adamant and continues to lose.

In my opinion, the church should always be in the position of influence, because the church stands in the higher position more than any institution in the world...when the church loses focus, the societies go astray. The church should be innovative and inspire ingenuity. It is absurd when the church leaders expect help from the worldly political governments which are already corrupt, the church instead should help the governments in setting up powerful institutions like universities, industries, and many other things.

The Pentecostalism in Africa indeed has promoted laziness and mediocrity, and that is because we lack integrity and good leadership. Ask most Pentecostal churches about the way they handle their revenues and all you will get are excuses without accountability. Churches have turned into grounds of extortion and gambling.

I find (Ezk. 34) befitting the situation the church leaders are in today, of course not all, I truly salute those that are doing their best and have faithfully handled the truth with care.
I rest my case here...

Spot on chief spot on. He makes absolutely no sense in what he is saying, Europeans laws are based on the bible? That is why homosexuality is normal at least in western Europe? also church attendance is soo low, in Europe as well? It seems the more atheistic the society the better they seem to be doing, because they solve their problems with facts and evidence not wishful thinking. The final thing I will like to ask the dear apostle is this why is it that when we first met the white man he did not teach us engineering, he did not teach us chemistry, physics, medicine, philosophy you know the things that elevated him and freed him from most of the problems of nature? He however eagerly taught the bible to black person he met convincing him that the god and diamond he walked on were worthless, so were the rich fabrics and everything else and that his glory and salvation lay in the other life. So we should leave all our natural resources to him and enjoy ourselves after we die hahahahhaahhaa.

Winni | 4/7/2017 12:39:00 PM

I concur. The argument is mediocre, at best. The truth is that the author of this column speaks the truth.

Most of you don't know European history. The Europe of today is not the Europe of the 1700's and 1800's. the Europe today has moved so far away from the God they served in previous generations of those years. Socialism and secularism have driven them so far from any desire of a living God. Those same Europeans brought you education and in the previous generations, if you were attending a so called mission school, you considered yourselves to be blessed by the European taught mission school. That earned you an opportunity to go to the privileged universities. I'm no fan of Europe or it's history pertaining to Africa, however you don't throw the baby out with the bath water. It is that same education that you were privileged with that have brought you to a misguided understanding of the church and therefore you too will soon be like the European societies which you now despise, though you will accept a visa to go there in a heart beat. Governments set policies, not the church. Government sell land rights, not the church. Governments make deals with multinational oil and mining companies, not the church. Millions of youth are desiring a job, what are you contributing to the betterment of a youthful society that will help our youth become contributors to society. We in our churches do pay our tithes and give offerings, Do you pay your income taxes to your government, Are you part of the solution or a contributor to the problems. Going to the pub on a Friday or a weekend of TV football games played by the same EUROPEANS which you credit for the worlds evils is not adding one thing to the conversation. Leave the church to itself and let God deal with them; leave your religious beliefs to yourself and hope that one day God does not have to deal with you.

Prince Gaisie | 4/4/2017 7:54:00 AM

The bible is written to purpose and those twisting were all mentioned in Matthew 24 . There is business models and human understanding all written. We are admonished to continuously study to prove ourselves

The race is not the swift

Nor the bread to the strong

Neither bread to the wise

Nor riches to men of intelligence and understanding

Nor favour to men of skill

But time and chance happens to them all.

This is a quote from the bible.

I'm not surprised you are sounding like this if truly your handle is who you are - an apostle. I guess the message in the write-up is anti-business for you and the "church"... by the "church" I mean what operates now rather than what Christ would have wished for us.

The write has done nothing but justice to current situation and I'm surprised someone thinks otherwise here...this can only happen if the message affects your business. Let's be wise, the church these days has done more harm than good!... That is not Christ-like...that is not Christianity!

Did you read the article at all? If you read it, then its amazing how you derived your conclusion. The sucessful people mentioned in the post weren't handed opportunities, they made themselves relevant through 'hardwork'. There are job opportunities which are not enough to go around for sure, but in the midst of that, some keep coming up with innovative ideas that places them in a pedestal no job opportunity could have. Try to keep up with TedX and see young Africans in destitute countries surpassing all odds. How is going to church and giving away the little you have to enrich some who is already well off, reasonable? Religion somehow limits the mind of Africans, making it impossible for Africans to even imagine what they can achieve by their own hands, imagination and brains. That's why most people sit around waiting for the higher power to break boundaries when 'we, the gods on earth' can do a lot for ourselves.

"THEY STOLE WHAT THEY HAVE" so where did Singapore, India, Australia, Canada, Malaysia, South Korea and now Vietnam steal from?

The followers of these churches look for the shortcut in life their pastors look for through them.

"EUROPEANS HAVE NO HISTORY SO THEY KILLED MURDERED AND STOLE FROM OTHERS" everything has a history even Satan has a history unless. Again, no one has told me how European thieves can steal from Africans for hundreds of years without being noticed. If it is the minerals, we had no use for them. They are still carrying out exploration everywhere with our permission, discovering minerals under the homes we live in when we have thousands of trained scientists and geophysicists. (to understand what most Europeans think about God - peek into Cicero's book titled - The Nature of Gods).

Nilegirl | 4/7/2017 12:48:00 AM

Apostle Nii Kpakpo, what Kay Mosonda wrote is true and the examples are so familiar. The manipulation of the unregulated Pentecostal Churches is a real danger to society. I fully agree with the author. What is going on on African continent is worse than colonisation. These unqualified preachers (a lot of them) who have become pastors without even high school diploma are killing the minds of our generetions. You just have to see and listen to what they say and you will find out that there are there for themselves. Telling lies to their members and playing with their minds and taking advantage of the members desparate situations. Just look at preachers clothes and cars they drive and you will understand who is better off : the poor member who is paying more than 10% of his little income and sometime giving his/her own house to the pastor or The pastor who is buying villas, most expensive clothes and most expensive cars?
 The background of most of those padtors tell the whole story: they came from nowhere, no really university education but they figured out how to rip off people by promissing people that they can show them how to be reach and happy by playing and paying those THIEVES. It is time that African governments put an end to that sort of rubbery on the continent. We all know that there have been sevular churches and denominations sunce centuries: those are the really ones. However, we have those groups which are growing everyday like wheeds through the continent and created by people who have failed in life besides finding a way to enrching themselves. Telling your desperate, financially broke member that Gid will send him/her a check in the mail of $10000 is JUST LIE AND SHOULD BE PUNISHED BY LAW.

The Bible teaches work, study believing in what God has put in us. Dreams and imagination. Anyone who gives freely and gives unto God, it's out of their free will. Above all the Bible teaches us to study so we may know God's word. It is strange that people who have little or no knowledge of God want to tell us how to serve Him and how to worship Him. What have you said to the leaders of your country? God is the only hope. Blessed be God who has given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness through the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Pastors like Agyeman Prempeh in the the Christian world ditching women from Sierra Leone and the West indies in his church telling them that he can pray and make them have children and steady relationships when his only sister married for over 15 years with no single child that husband got married after their divorce has children to his name and his sister had been in her second marriage now for how many years with no single stick not to talk to a child.recently I caught a sight of that liar standing next to Akuffo at a church ceremony organised by another one Owusu Bempah this Agyeman Prempeh boy was collecting thousand of pounds from his church members one Sunday for his wedding in Ghana in the meantime the church is in London.here is a guy who can barely speak any good English sleeping in huge mansions in Ghana,riding huge four-wheeled cars in Ghana at the expense of poor church members in London where most of these women and ignorant men are cleaners.

Selling handkerchiefs, olive oils and water in the church for hundreds of pounds I was there I saw it .giving envelopes for his wedding collection starting from GHc1000.00, GHc500.00 and he had the cheek to say that the least should be not less than GHc20.00.

A st*p*d Sierra Leone man was giving out the envelopes and he claimed he took the GHc1000.00 pounds envelope come and see fIs jumping for envelopes Agyeman Prempeh had the nerves to say that hmm mama this wedding is going to cost me a lot oo mama even the hotel golden Tulip in Accra. Can you imagine such a cheap thief just like you having a church .you're all deceiving people using the name of God and Jesus.to my surprise to see Akkofu accept a horn from Owusu Bempah God have mercy Nana educated and our President doing this in public and to add more to it mabayi m3saan ababiom.Ghana is deadoooooo

You have hit the nail on the head.Martin Luther must be cursing him self because what he stood against is now worse .people now go to church from Monday to Friday.

i would advise that you do not group all Pastors who are African in one group. Not 'The African Pastor', 'Some African Pastors'..Besides A pastors job is not to teach/preach business but the kingdom of God. It is no doubt that Christians must push for the best, work hard and be the best but a Pastors job whether African or American is not to teach business! You have a very myopic point of view, perhaps you need to change churches? Because not every (I use the term loosely) African Pastor teaches that.

You stated, a pastor job is not to speak financial matters... how silly is your statement.

wacoi | 4/8/2017 12:20:00 PM

I think will disagree I see American and other pastors atleast giving sermons on things like principles of life and money e.t.c,sadly here it's all about vain repetitions and instilling fear of the bishops and pastors while they continue growing rich from experience I know where I come from church is booming business sense,that's why most people who go to school are shunning these kind of churches and the men if God are actually pushing people to lack of belief on God by their lies.

In a place where religious activities are on the ascendancy, productivity becomes lower. People are always in church praying when they should be out in the field working. Jericho hour is an example. It is done during working hours.

Boblu | 5/7/2017 10:27:00 AM

Some of what the write says is admissible but to cast all African Christians as fls diminishes the power of his essay. Billionaire Nigerian Entrepreneur Elumelu is a man of faith who didn't inherit worth but worked hard to reach where he is today. And there are thousands like him. This destroys the writers argument. Now you also mention Jericho hour being held during working hours, but let me ask, when u are sick, don't u attend hospital during work hours? So what is wrong with a sick person seeking intervention during working hours? Sometimes we think we are wiser but open our mouths to reveal some pathetic logic.

Charlo | 4/9/2018 8:34:00 AM

That's not true, when christianity grows there is increase in productivity; people turn from alcoholism, parents begin educating their children; do not be deceived ladies and gentlemen

Common Sense | 4/4/2017 10:47:00 PM

Nail on head. These churches and pulpit pimps posing as pastors and imams (in the case of mosques) are creating nations of zombies. Fela warned about it decades ago and boy was he right! Whilst other ethnicities are relying on logic, common sense and ACTIONS to solve their own problems, Africans are busy praying for miracles to solve man made problems, making pastors rich and when we are not doing that we are busy arguing and fighting over whether white Jesus or Arab Allah is the god we should serve.

And we wonder why we are a laughing stock and not progressing as we should.

Common Sense | 4/4/2017 11:07:00 PM

Nothing but misinformation and nonsense in this so called rebuttal. The laws of Europe come from the Bible? Clearly you haven't studied law, EU or otherwise. FYI the laws of England differ from those of Scotland. The laws of Germany differ from those of France or Romania. why? Because they reflect the cultures and values of those particular varied nations, not the Bible! If you haven't noticed, Europeans came out of the dark and Middle Ages once they stopped believing in nonsense religious dogma, instead they used the Bible to enslave and conquer other nations, and boy did it work on us Africans! What people like you are never able to do is explain the correlation between heavily religious former colonies and the levels of corruption and disorder that always seems to exist in them. Oh that's right, because we think that the problem is that we don't pray enough even though we pray more than everyone else whilst everyone else is overtaking us in leaps and bounds.

Those nice European inventions and creations you speak of came from the use and pursuance of Science and critical thinking (which you so-called men of god discourage), not the Bible. And before the Bible was brought to our shores, we were in fact more than matching them in terms of creativity and ingenuity. Now however, we may as well be in the same dark ages that Europeans were once in hundreds of years ago.

But yeah let's continue to think we can pray our problems away, it's been working a treat so far!

So its the bible that is responsible for the 'backwardness' in Africa. Hmmm. So where lies corruption, tribalism and ethnicism. Maybe you should let us do what we believe in and keep you view to yourself. I wonder what your own contribution has been to development in your area.

Reasonable man | 4/7/2017 5:12:00 AM

Judging by your name (stolen from a 2000 year old book), I gather we can't expect anything fruitful from you.

IGNORANCE | 4/17/2017 4:52:00 PM

Mr "common sense" you are not applying your so-called common sense. The fact that a nation's laws reflect her culture does not mean it cannot be bible based. Everything in the right direction or good is bible based. This is simple logic. This illiterate author was describing what African Pastors preach. He forgot to tell us what whites are also bringing into this world :1) The US agreed that for better relationships with the world super powers,, all the countries of the world must accept homosexual marriage.2) Germany just signed a law that declares the non-existence of incest valid. 3) The city of Miami has now endorsed public sex sale city (It is not a crime to satisfy your sexual desire even in a Church or Temple). 4) Canada has authorised bestiality (sex with animals). 5) In Spain pornographic movies are authorised in Secondary schools and universities. 6) Prostitution for minors have been authorised at a tender age of 10. Mr common sense, choose from accepting to spend your time in prayer at Church for a whole week and accepting to embrace these bullll-shits above. Think twice. We will not stop praying all day all week all year. Go and burn the sea

Your name candidly describes your comment! Who gives a rats ass what European men do with their Asses... the issue here is what are we as africans doing to nature our talents as opposed to having magical thinking which is mostly preached to us by your likes... by the tone of your response we can clearly see the tolerance of christianity that you have learnt by exemplifying the life of christ... very hilarious!

SAM | 4/5/2017 4:42:00 AM

All the guy is trying to bring across is in combination of your faith use your talent to gain wealth. You cant pray 24/7 and expect manner to fall from heaven, who will pay your bills? here in the western world if you do that you will sleep in the cold. Well said Bro. Believing in Christ is good but God can release your blessing through your given talent, don't dig the ground and hide it God will take what you have and give it to the rich.

Flemming Bill Fadder | 4/5/2017 10:36:00 AM

Why is it the pastors are doing as they do, because if you get a job, there are going to happen two things that he is not happy with

1. If you get a job you won't be able to come for the service at Thursday 10 am, and therefore he won't get your offering at that service
2. If you get a job you won't come to him to pray for you, therefore he can't tell you to bring 100 $, and you should then be fasting for three days, and he will pray for you, But while you are fasting, he is getting three full meals

And look at this

I have a business that turn everyone who joins in to wealthy people, and I have spoken to a lot of pastors, for me to introduce it to their church member, but I'm not even surprised that 90 % of the pastors say no, because they are sure that the members are only in his church for him to pray for them to get job, so if they get on my Business they won't come to his church anymore
